ILLNESS HURRIES WEDDING OF LOCAL SOCIETY PEOPLE

J. W. Goodwin and Miss Elena Robinson of this city were married at St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco yesterday morning at 2 o'clock. The wedding was to have been celebrated by Rev. Father J. W. Sullivan of St. Patrick's Seminary at the home of the bride's mother at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. But during the day Mr. Goodwin was taken seriously ill and was removed to the St. Francis hospital.

The bride and her party, when they heard of the illness of the bridegroom, jumped into a powerful touring car and sped 30 miles to the hospital, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. David M. Crabtree, an Episcopal clergyman. Mr. Goodwin was in bed when he married Miss Robinson. The bride and party arrived at the hospital at 10 minutes after 1 o'clock. Soon they were joined by Norris Goodwin, son of the bridegroom, and Carl Stevens, a friend.

Reports from the sick chamber yesterday were to the effect that Mr. Goodwin was recovering nicely and would soon be able to proceed on his honeymoon to be spent in the high Sierras. After the ceremony the bride returned to Redwood City but left yesterday to join her husband at the hospital. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. James Robinson of this city and is a charming young woman. Mr. Goodwin is the president of the Oro Electric Company and reputed to be a millionaire. He maintains a handsome home near town. Mrs. Goodwin is a granddaughter of the late Horace Hawes, who figured so prominently in the early history of the State. Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin have the best wishes of all for a happy wedded life.

Death of Pioneer Woman.

Mrs. E. Leighton, since 1873, a resident of Pescadero, passed away on Monday, July 28th. She was born in Louisiana in 1838, her maiden name being Mary Jane Leindrum.

For several years Mrs. Leighton was confined rather closely to her home. During that time she was deprived of the companionship of her many friends, as they yielded kindly to the other, and to those residing on the coast, and in visits of cheer and helpfulness.

Mrs. Leighton came to California in 1852, residing in San Francisco till her marriage in 1856 to Ransom H. Wood, since which time she had lived on the coast.

Her husband was drowned in 1861, leaving her with three children, Ira H., Chas. L. and Geo. F. Her second marriage was to Elisha Leighton of Pescadero, and her daughters are Mary O. and Emily A. Leighton, and Mrs. A. L. Crandall.

Survive Mrs. Leighton's children five her, Ira H. Wood having died in Arizona in 1884.

The remaining members of Mrs. Leighton's family express their sincere appreciation of the kind attentions and sympathy extended by the many friends and neighbors during the last days.

Young People Surprise Friends.

Lester Mullen and Miss Leora Harvey were quietly married last Saturday evening in the parsonage of the Congregational church by Rev. C. H. Stevens. Only a few friends were present as it was the desire of the young couple to have the wedding as quiet as possible. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mullen departed for Monte Rio to spend the honeymoon. They are expected home today and will occupy the cosy home prepared by the groom for his bride in Dinegar Park. Mr. Mullen is the son of Daniel Mullen, the pioneer harness-maker of this city and a well-known citizen of Redwood City for over thirty years. The groom is employed in the office of the Abstract of Title Company in Redwood City. He is a most exemplary young man with a host of friends throughout the county. Mrs. Mullen is a graduate of the local high school, possessing a pleasing and charming manner, she has made many friends who wish her and her husband a prosperous wedded life.

Another Big Week Coming

Evidently determined that their patrons shall have full value for their money, "and then some"—manager Nathorst has arranged for another week of special programs at the Bell Theater, and all at popular prices. For the coming week each of the four changes of program will include a splendid two-reel special, including some more than usually expensive productions. One of the special programs to be shown for Sunday evening only, when the splendid Selig production, "The Law and the Outlaw," will be shown. This is one of the strongest of the always popular Western productions, dealing with the dramatic experiences of an escaped prisoner among the cowboys in the Dakota cattle wilds, a story full of grand moral instruction.

Another strong feature, "The Accusing Hand," will be shown Monday and Tuesday evenings. Notwithstanding the extra expense of these films, the price will remain at 5 and 10 cents.

Consider Portola Festival.

Manager Fuller of the San Mateo County Development Association announces that there will be a meeting of all civic and fraternal societies in the county in the city of San Mateo on the evening of August 11. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the question of whether or not San Mateo county is to appear in a division in the big parade of the Portola celebration next October. Many favor the project and there should be a big gathering at San Mateo on that evening.

FIVE J. P.'S OFFICIATE AT COAKLEY WEDDING.

Five justices of the peace of San Mateo county Saturday united in marriage Caleb Coakley, proprietor of a Colma roadhouse which bears his name, and Mrs. Bessie Anthony, a charming widow of San Francisco. The ceremony occurred in the parlor of the Hotel Sequoia in this city. Judge John Pitcher of Halfmoon Bay, an octogenarian, was assisted by Judge Ellis C. Johnson of Colma, Judge J. Davis of San Bruno, Judge Lampkin of Redwood City and Judge Joseph McCormick of San Mateo. District Attorney Franklin Swart acted as witness.

After the ceremony all five justices kissed the bride.

Mrs. Sharkey Called to Rest.

Mrs. Theresa N. Sharkey died at the home of her son, Myles A. Sharkey, in this city Sunday, after a long and painful illness. She was a native of Ireland, aged 63 years, 4 months and 4 days, and had been a resident of this city for about 3 years, coming here from the northern part of the State. While here Mrs. Sharkey followed the occupation of nurse and was highly regarded for her kindness and thoughtfulness. Her son is the only survivor of a large family, and during her long illness, which she bore uncomplainingly, she had been tenderly cared for by himself and wife. The funeral took place Tuesday from Mount Carmel church, and the interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Colma.
